School Threat Deemed Not Credible

Last night, the Colonial Heights Police Department was advised by a third party of a possible threat to the high school. Officers and Detectives investigated the information immediately, identified the source in question, and concluded that it was not a credible threat. This information was shared with the Colonial Heights Public School Administration early this morning in time for all normal school activities to resume.

The Colonial Heights Police Department and the Colonial Heights School System continue to work together closely with the utmost safety of our students in mind. We encourage all our residents and students to share any and all information they deem as potentially unsafe. Any questions or additional information that may be useful to this investigation please contact Public Information Officer, Sergeant Renee Walters at 804-520-9306.
